EWER ARCHIVE N8440003

Published in:

New-Hampshire Patriot and State Gazette (Concord) (28 November 1844).

Premium Daguerreotype.

H. H. LONG

RESPECTFULLY solicits the attention of the people of Concord, and the surrounding towns, to his clear, bold and beautiful

DAGUERREOTYPE MINIATURES.

These miniatures need no other recommendation than that which the judges of the MASSACHUSETTS CHARITABLE MECHANIC ASSOCIATION conferred upon them at their late fair in Boston.

The process by which they are taken renders them permanent, so they are not injured by time, exposure to the light, or defaced by rubbing. Only half a minute is required for taking a picture, and, accidents excepted, a good picture is secured at one sitting.

Room, second floor Low's Brick Block.

Nov. 12th.
