Advertisement for Frederick Coombs, 14 July 1851
(keywords: Frederick Coombs, history of the daguerreotype, history of photography)

Published in:

F. COOMBS

PIONEER DAGUEREAN, LATE AT WELLS’
Building, now on Montgomery street, one door from Long Wharf, having received about twenty cases of choicest Daguerrean materials, apparatus &c. since the fire of 4th of May, (when all was lost,) has re-opened with splendid light. Some modern improvements just received, with rich inlaid pearl cases, Jenny Lind do., fine gold Lockets—all at prices full one-half cheaper than charged last year by him. Remember, one door from Long Wharf.

* Plates, cases, &c., for sale in quantities.

[End of text.]